

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to run a pro-Bush documentary two weeks before the election, with no intent to provide equal, prime, air time to the other candidates is inappropriate.

If they indeed do so, I believe they should suffer grave consequences for their misuse of the public airwaves. I trust the FCC will make warnings and take appropriate actions to protect the public airwaves from partisanship.